

CITYBEE PRIVACY POLICY

UAB "Prime leasing" (hereinafter - we or the Company) values and protects the privacy and security of personal data, therefore in this Privacy Policy (hereinafter - the Privacy Policy), we explain how we handle the data of our customers (hereinafter - the Client) and other data subjects (hereinafter collectively referred to - You) personal data when you use (a) CityBee mobile application (hereinafter - Mobile application or Mobile App), (b) CityBee vehicles - cars, bicycles (hereinafter - Vehicles), (c) CityBee website <https://www.citybee.lt> (hereinafter - the Website) and (d) when you communicate with us by phone, e-mail, social networks, and/or in other ways.

When processing personal data, we comply with the 2016 April 27 Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council on the protection of natural persons in the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, which repeals Directive 95/46/EC (General Data Protection Regulation, hereinafter - GDPR), other applicable legal acts regulating personal data protection, and the provisions of this Privacy Policy.

In this Privacy Policy, we present the most important structured information about the protection of your personal data: i.e., what personal data we collect, how and why we use it, on what legal basis we process it, how long we store it, to whom we transfer it, as well as our duties in processing your personal data, your rights and the methods of their implementation. The most important information about processing your personal data is presented in the tables in Chapter 16 of this Privacy Policy. Please take the time to review this Privacy Policy, and please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any questions.

If you use the Mobile Application and/or the Website, we will assume that you are familiar with this Privacy Policy and the purposes, methods, and procedures for processing your personal data specified in it. If you do not want your data to be processed as described in this Privacy Policy, please do not use the Mobile Application and/or Website, and do not provide us with your personal data in any other way.

The Privacy Policy is a constantly changing document, so we can improve, change, and update it if necessary. For this reason, please visit the Website or Mobile Application from time to time, where you will always find the latest version of the Privacy Policy. We will also additionally inform you about the most significant changes to the Privacy Policy, and we will always publish the updated version on our Website and Mobile App.

The latest changes to the Privacy Policy have been made and are valid from 4th of May 2023.

2. ON WHAT LEGAL BASIS DO WE PROCESS YOUR PERSONAL DATA?

We process your personal data specified in this Privacy Policy based on the following legal bases:

- when concluding, executing, changing, and administering the Service Agreement (Art. 6(1)(b) GDPR);
- fulfilling the legal obligations and requirements of legal acts applicable to us (Art. 6(1)(c) GDPR);
- implementing our and third parties' legitimate interests (Art. 6(1)(f) GDPR);
- implementing your consent (Art. 6(1)(a) GDPR, Art. 9(2)(a) GDPR);

In the scope and conditions provided by the applicable legal acts, one or more of the above-mentioned legal bases may be applied to the processing of your same personal data. The purposes and legal bases for the processing of your personal data are described in detail and presented in Chapter 16 of this Privacy Policy.

3. FOR WHAT PURPOSES AND WHAT PERSONAL DATA DO WE COLLECT?

We collect and process only your personal data that are sufficient and necessary to achieve the purposes for which they are processed. The purposes for processing your personal data and the list of collected personal data are described in detail and presented in Chapter 16 of this Privacy Policy.

We may combine the personal data we have received from you (when you are using the Mobile Application, the Services, and/or the Website) with the personal data we have collected from other public or accessible sources (e.g., with data obtained using website cookies, or with data legally obtained from third parties and etc.).

4. CAN YOU NOT PROVIDE YOUR PERSONAL DATA AND/OR NOT CONSENT TO THE PROCESSING OF YOUR PERSONAL DATA?

Your personal data is collected and processed to conclude or fulfill the Service Agreement with you and/or enable us to promptly and adequately provide the Services and respond to your requests and complaints. Suppose you do not provide your data, provide it with errors, or refuse to provide it further. In that case, we will not be able to conclude and/or execute the Service Agreement, provide the Services and adequately respond to your requests, complaints, and/or other requirements that require our action. Accordingly, failure to provide personal data or refusal to continue to provide certain personal data will mean that the Service Agreement with you will not be concluded or will be terminated.

Chapter 12 of the Privacy Policy outlines more information about your rights.

5. FROM WHAT SOURCES DO WE GET YOUR DATA?

We receive almost all your personal data from you; when you enter into a Service Agreement with us, use the Mobile App, the Services, the Website, and receive your personal data in other informed ways.

Also, when it is allowed by legal acts, and when it is necessary for the execution of the Service Agreement and/or to achieve other purposes of processing your personal data, the Company collects or becomes known to the Company various information about you from the following multiple sources:

- from official institutions - data on the validity of the driver's license;
- from the police and municipalities - information about road traffic rules (KET) and other violations and traffic incidents;
- from insurance companies and other official institutions or persons - information about traffic incidents, damage to the Company's Vehicles or third parties;
- from payment service providers – information about your payment transactions;
- from debt collection companies, claims management and/or credit rating companies - data of your financial obligations to us;
- from public registers – various publicly available information;
- from internet/communication service providers – Your usage data;
- from other official institutions (e.g., various police units, VMI, VDAI, etc.) - information on ongoing investigations.

6. DO WE SHARE YOUR PERSONAL DATA WITH OTHERS?

Yes, the Company discloses all or part of your personal data to the following data recipients: various service providers, companies belonging to the same group as the Company, competent authorities, and other data controllers who have the right to information under applicable laws and/or our legitimate interests. Also, upon receipt of your consent, your personal data may be disclosed to persons and/or companies indicated by you. More information:

- 6.1. The Company uses various service providers (e.g., server and cloud rental, IT service, identity verification, payment collection, audit, accounting, legal, tax consulting services, claims administration, debt collection, analytics, direct marketing, customer service, and other service providers). All service providers have concluded service and data processing contracts with us and are considered processors of your personal data, who can process your personal data only following our instructions and in strict compliance with the purposes of the processing. All data processors, like us, must ensure the security of your personal data under the applicable laws.
- 6.2. To ensure the smooth provision and quality of the Services, it may be necessary to transfer some of your personal data to other companies belonging to the same group as the Company. Intergroup companies, like other service providers, are considered data processors and are subject to all the terms and conditions applicable to data processors.
- 6.3. If necessary and on legally justified grounds, we also provide your personal data to service providers who are separate data controllers, as well as to various institutions, organizations, and other data controllers who have the right to receive information under applicable legislation and/or our legitimate interests. For example:
 - in the event of an accident and/or car accident, your data will be transferred to insurance companies and, if necessary, to other parties involved in the accident;
 - after receiving fines for traffic violations (KET), we have the right and, in certain cases, the obligation to disclose the data of the person who violated the traffic rules to the relevant authorities (e.g. the police), based on the Vehicle data we have;
 - we have the right and, in certain cases, the obligation to transfer information about you to competent authorities (e.g. law enforcement authorities, courts, other dispute resolution authorities) for the purposes of investigating fraud, crime and crime prevention and other investigations;
 - after receiving fines for parking (parking) violations, we have the right and, in certain cases, the obligation to transfer your data to parking lot owners or designated collection companies that contact us on their behalf;
 - if you do not fulfill your financial obligations according to the Service Agreement and do not pay the debt within the deadline specified in the notice, we have the right to transfer your personal data to debt collection companies, bailiffs, courts in order to start debt collection processes;
 - Your personal data may also be transferred to other data controllers (insurance companies, vehicle maintenance service providers or other additional service providers);

- Your personal data may also be transferred to other service providers who are independent data controllers whose offers, promotions, game campaigns you have agreed to receive;
- Your personal data may also be transferred to operators of social network platforms if you perform active actions on our social media profiles (e.g. Facebook, LinkedIn).

7. DO WE TRANSFER YOUR PERSONAL DATA OUTSIDE THE EUROPEAN ECONOMIC AREA?

Data processors and independent data controllers with whom we share your personal data are usually located in European Union member states or store data entrusted to us in European Union countries. However, we have cases where carefully selected service providers (e.g., Google, Microsoft Azure, App Flyer, CleverTap, etc.) and controllers (e.g., operators of social networking platforms LinkedIn, Facebook, etc.) process personal data outside the EEA.

In such cases, we carefully follow the practices and guidelines of supervisory authorities regarding the transfer of personal data outside the EEA and carefully assess the conditions under which the data is transferred and may continue to be processed and stored after the transfer outside the EEA. Also, to ensure an adequate level of data security and to guarantee the lawful transfer of data, where possible, we sign the standard contractual terms approved by the European Commission (Article 46(2)(c) GDPR) for data transfers outside the EEA or ensure that this is done otherwise, in accordance GDPR norms.

If you would like to receive more information about how we ensure the security of your personal data when transferring it outside the EEA, don't hesitate to contact us using the contact details provided in Chapter 15 of the Privacy Policy.

8. DO WE PERFORM AUTOMATED DECISION-MAKING AND/OR PROFILING?

The Company uses automated decision-making, including profiling, to fulfill the terms of the Agreement (e.g. allocation of benefits, Service limitation criteria, etc.) and to provide customized direct marketing services (e.g. sending newsletters only to interested customers). Accordingly, the Company may collect, analyze and process personal data by applying special algorithms and prediction models about your choices, behavior, criteria for using the Services, amounts spent, and similar characteristics. Most of these actions do not have any legal or similar significant impact on you. Still, you always have the right that the applicable decision is not based solely on automated data processing, including profiling. Accordingly, you must contact us using the contacts specified in section 15, and our employees will re-evaluate whether the decision made automatically is correct based on the available data in your account.

9. DO WE FILM PREMISES AND/OR VEHICLES?

The Company itself does not conduct video filming in customer service premises, parking lots, etc., where it is located and/or where the Vehicle may be located. However, the owners of the respective premises, sites, and other spaces can do so (contacts of such Data Controllers should be indicated in the notices at the filming locations).

The Company implements measures for the protection of persons and property. It performs video surveillance only in Premium class vehicles, additionally informing the Clients about this with an informational sticker inside each Vehicle. These Vehicles are equipped with video surveillance cameras that film real-time external view without sound (the standard field of vision for filming can be horizontal 120°, vertical 70°), and in the event of a traffic and/or other incident or other dangerous situation, video surveillance equipment records a short video clip (up to 30 seconds). The processing of Personal data during video surveillance and recording of short video clips is based on the legitimate interest of ensuring the safety and protection of Clients, Premium class vehicles, and public traffic. The information from short videos can be provided to Data Recipients when it is necessary to investigate illegal acts and/or defend the Company's legal interests.

10. HOW LONG DO WE KEEP YOUR PERSONAL DATA?

We process and store your personal data for no longer than the purpose(s) of processing required or when required by law. Detailed information about the possible purposes of processing your personal data and the retention periods of personal data processed for these purposes is specified in Chapter 16 of this Privacy Policy.

At the end of the set term for processing and storing your data, we delete your data or reliably and irreversibly depersonalize them as soon as possible, within a reasonable period of time necessary to perform such an action.

Your personal data may be stored longer than specified in this Privacy Policy only when:

- Your data is necessary for the proper administration of debt, damage (e.g., you failed to fulfill your financial and/or property obligations or caused damage to the Company or other persons) for the investigation of a dispute, complaint, to ensure our or third parties' legal interests;
- it is necessary for the Company to be able to defend itself against existing or threatened demands, claims, or lawsuits in order to exercise its rights;
- there are reasonable suspicions of violations, illegal acts, for which there is or may be an investigation;
- the data is necessary to ensure the security, integrity, and resilience of information systems (e.g., after noticing suspicious actions in the Account, Mobile App, Website, etc.);
- there are other grounds provided for in legal acts.

11. HOW DO WE ENSURE THE SECURITY OF YOUR PERSONAL DATA?

We process your personal data responsibly and securely, following our internal data processing rules and appropriate technical and organizational measures to protect personal data against unauthorized data processing, accidental loss, destruction, damage, alteration, disclosure, or any other illegal processing action. Accordingly, we follow the following essential data processing principles:

- we collect personal data only for defined and legal purposes;
- we process personal data honestly and only for the primary purpose;
- we store personal data for no longer than the established purposes or legal acts require;
- we entrust the processing of personal data only to employees who have been granted the such right and official access;
- we process personal data only by applying appropriate technical and organizational measures;
- we disclose personal data to third parties only if there is a legal basis;
- if applicable, we inform the State Data Protection Inspectorate about recorded or suspected violations of personal data security;
- we periodically conduct data protection training for our employees;
- we perform periodic internal and/or external IT security audits;
- we change, adapt, and constantly improve various processes to ensure the safest possible personal data collection, reception, transmission, use, etc. processing steps.

We emphasize that we regularly monitor our systems for possible violations or attacks. Still, it is impossible to ensure the complete security of information transmitted over the internet or to prevent breaches, especially those that may occur due to your carelessness or disclosure of data to others. Taking this into account, we note that you also bear the personal risk of submitting personal data using the internet connection through the Mobile Application and the Website. You also maintain the entire risk related to the voluntary disclosure of your Account data to others and/or the careless use of your personal processing data you receive directly from us.

12. WHAT RIGHTS DO YOU HAVE?

If we process your personal data for the purposes set out in this Privacy Policy or if you have reason to believe that we are processing your personal data, then you as a data subject have the following rights under the GDPR:

- The right to know – to know (be informed) about the processing of your personal data;
- The right to access - to receive confirmation as to whether your personal data is being processed, and if so, to request access to your personal data and receive a copy of it;
- The right to correct - to request that inaccurate or incomplete personal data be corrected;
- The right to object - to object to the processing of your personal data;
- The right to withdraw your consent - when we process data with your consent;
- The right to limit - to request that redundant or illegally processed personal data be restricted;
- The right to delete data/be forgotten - to request the deletion of illegally processed personal data or those personal data that are no longer necessary to achieve the purposes for which they were collected or otherwise processed;
- The right to transfer - to receive your personal data in a systematized computer-readable format and transfer that data to another data controller;
- The right to complain - file a complaint with the State Data Protection Inspectorate (L. Sapiegos st. 17, LT-10312 Vilnius, e-mail ada@ada.lt), but we recommend contacting us first, and we will try to solve all your requests together with you.

11.1. Right to know:

In this Privacy Policy, we try to provide you with relevant information about processing your personal data as simply and in detail as possible. The most important information for you can be found in Chapter 16 of the Privacy Policy, which details the purposes of processing personal data, categories of data, legal grounds for the processing, and storage terms. Also, every time we make changes to the Privacy Policy, we will inform you about it in a separate message via Mobile App.

11.2. The right to access the processed data:

If you are our customer and have an active Account, then you can generate an up-to-date copy of your personal data unlimited times and at any time via the Self-Service website <https://selfservice.citybee.lt/>. All you need to do is enter the address of the Self-Service website using the Internet browser (note that you will not be able to download a copy of the data through the Mobile App) and perform the following steps:

<https://selfservice.citybee.lt/> - log in to your Account - follow the requested verification steps - after logging in, click on your e-mail address (found at the top of the right side of the window) - click on the "Get your data" link.

If you no longer have an active Account or if there are obstacles to using the Self-Service website, then write us an e-mail at the e-mail address dpo@citybee.lt and then we will send you an e-mail a letter with information on how you can obtain a copy of your personal data or contact us using the other contacts specified in Section 13 of the Privacy Policy.

11.3. The right to correct personal data:

If the personal data you provided has changed (surname, e-mail address, telephone, driver's license, etc.), or you believe that the information we process about you is inaccurate, you have the right to demand to change, clarify, or correct information.

You can make some changes to your personal data yourself in your Account via the Mobile App (e.g. upload a new driver's license, change your address, etc.). In other cases, you must contact us via contacts specified in Chapter 13 of the Privacy Policy and ask us to correct or clarify your data.

11.4. The right to object to data processing:

If we process your personal data on the basis of legitimate interest, we have weighed the opposing interests and decided that taking into account the purpose and means of personal data processing, our (or the relevant third party's) interest in processing your personal data does not exceed your interests or fundamental rights and freedoms, which make it necessary protect personal data. However, suppose you have reason to believe that our data processing violates your fundamental rights and freedoms. In that case, you can exercise your right as a data subject and limit the data processed.

Accordingly, in cases where we process personal data based on the data controller's legitimate interest (GDPR, Article 6, Paragraph 1, Point f), we process data for direct marketing purposes, you may object to data processing.

To exercise this right, you must contact us via contacts specified in Chapter 13 of the Privacy Policy.

11.5. The right to withdraw your consent:

In cases where we process personal data based on your consent, you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time, and data processing based on your consent will be terminated. For example, you can withdraw your consent to receive marketing offers and various information at any time through any channels we provide (e.g., newsletters, SMS messages, InApp notifications, etc.). Revoking these consents will not prevent you from continuing to use our Services, but it will mean that we will not be able to provide you with valuable offers about our Services. We also note that the withdrawal of consent does not affect the lawfulness of data processing until the withdrawal of consent.

To exercise this right, you can conveniently do so in the following ways:

- you can unsubscribe from the newsletter at any time by clicking the e-mail the "Unsubscribe from newsletters" link in the letter;
- you can easily manage and change newsletters and active notifications in the Mobile App (push notifications) in your Account settings (by clicking on "My Profile" and then by clicking on "Subscription to offers");
- by changing the operating system settings of your device;
- by contacting us via contacts specified in Chapter 13 of the Privacy Policy.

11.6. The right to restrict data processing:

You have the right to restrict our ability to process your personal data. After you limit the processing of your personal data, we will no longer carry out any actions with your personal data other than personal data storage. However, the restriction of personal data may mean that during the restriction period, we may not be able to provide you with the Services, which may result in the suspension or termination of the Service Agreement.

You can limit the processing of personal data in at least one of the following circumstances:

- Your personal data is inaccurate (personal data processing actions, in this case, will be limited until checking the accuracy of the personal data);
- Your personal data is processed illegally, but you do not agree to have your data deleted;
- The company no longer needs your personal data for the specified purposes, but you need them to assert, fulfill or defend legal claims;
- Your personal data is processed based on legitimate interest, and you object to such processing of personal data. In this case, data processing will be limited until it is checked whether the reasons for which we process your personal data are superior to you.

You can limit the processing of your personal data by contacting us via contacts specified in Chapter 13 of the Privacy Policy.

11.7. Right to delete data (right to be forgotten):

You have the right to request that we no longer process your personal data and delete it in the event of at least one of the following circumstances:

- personal data are no longer necessary to achieve the purposes for which they were collected or otherwise processed;
- You revoke the consent on which the data processing was based, and there is no other legal basis for processing the data;
- Your personal data is processed illegally;
- You have submitted an objection to the processing of personal data on the basis of our legitimate interest, and it is proven that your interests are superior in a particular case.

We will consider your request to delete your personal data as a request also to terminate the Service Agreement, which will be terminated in accordance with the procedure provided in the Terms. A request to delete only certain of your personal data may result in the suspension or termination of the Service Agreement or the fact that we will not be able to provide you with all Services. We also note that deleting (uninstalling) your Mobile App will not mean termination of the Service Agreement. It will remain in effect until it is terminated following the Terms or until you request that we delete your data.

If you express a wish to delete all or part of your data, we will no longer actively process your data, which will no longer be necessary for the purposes for which they were collected or otherwise processed, but personal data will be stored according to the established terms, for the following reasons:

- for accounting and tax requirements, personal data will continue to be processed following Article 6(1)(c) GDPR. (processing the data is necessary to fulfill the legal obligation applicable to the data controller);
- GPS (location) data will continue to be processed following Art. 6(1)(f) GDPR. (processing of data is necessary for the legitimate interests of the data controller or a third party);
- to process customer complaints and other appeals, personal data will be processed following Art. 6(1)(b) GDPR. (processing of data is necessary to fulfill the contract to which the data subject is a party);
- to ensure the implementation of the ban on ordering the Services and using them in the future provided for in the Agreement on the Provision of Services, data (reason for termination of the provision of Services, date, period, certain identification data of yours, etc.) will be stored and processed following Art. 6(1)(f) GDPR. (processing of data is necessary for the legitimate interests of the data controller or a third party);
- in the event of disputes, claims, or debt administration, the data will continue to be processed following Art. 6(1)(f) GDPR to secure our other legal requirements and protect rights.. (processing of data is necessary for the legitimate interests of the data controller or a third party).

You can understand the right to "be forgotten" from your personal data by contacting us via contacts specified in Chapter 13 of the Privacy Policy.

11.8. Right to data portability:

When data processing is based on your consent (GDPR Article 6(1)(a)) or contract (GDPR Article 6(1)(b)) and is carried out by automated means, you have the right to receive the data you have provided to us in a structured, commonly used and computer-readable format. Also if it is technically possible at your request, your data may be forwarded directly to another data controller specified by you.

We inform you that if you are our Customer and have an active Account, then you can generate an unlimited number of times and at any time a current copy of your personal data and download it to your storage media through the Self-Service website. On the self-service website at <https://selfservice.citybee.lt/> - log in to your Account - complete the requested verification steps - after logging in, click on your e-mail address (found at the top of the right side of the window) - click on the "Get your data" link.

If you no longer have an active Account or if it is impossible to save a copy of your personal data through the Self-Service website, you can contact us via contacts specified in Chapter 13 of the Privacy Policy.

11.9. Right to file a complaint:

If you believe that we process your data in violation of personal data protection legislation requirements, please get in touch with us directly first. We believe that with good faith and effort, we will be able to dispel all your doubts, answer your questions, satisfy your requests and correct any mistakes we have made.

If you are not satisfied with our proposed method of solving the problem or, in your opinion, we will not take the necessary actions according to your request. You will have the right to file a complaint with the State Data Protection Inspectorate (L. Sapiegos st. 17, LT-10312 Vilnius, e-mail ada@ada.lt).

13. HOW CAN YOU APPLY FOR THE EXERCISE OF YOUR RIGHTS?

You can make requests to exercise your rights in the following ways:

- You can exercise your rights by contacting us via e-mail dpo@citybee.lt and submitting a free form request. Your request will be accepted and processed only if e-mail from which you contact us matches the e-mail that is linked with your Account. In response to your request, we may send a control message to the last contact in the Account (via SMS and e-mail), asking for an active authorization step and/or requesting additional documents or data.

- By phone: +370 700 44844 (please note that we cannot exercise all of your rights by phone). When you contact us by phone, we firstly verify your identity by asking you to provide your Account information or other information that only you should know. As part of this verification, we may send a verification message (by SMS or e-mail) to the last contact on your Account, asking you to take active action. If the verification procedure fails, we will have to declare that you are not a data subject and will have to reject your request;
- You can also exercise your rights by coming to our customer service department and filling out the application form, in which case we will ask you to show your identity document (we will not keep a copy of the document);

If we have doubts about your identity before taking active steps, we can ask you to provide us with additional documents and evidence, submit a request only in writing and/or sign with a qualified electronic signature, or come to our customer service department. For example, in cases where you do not have an Account, you cannot verify your identity by phone and/or you no longer have the e-mail address provided in the Account phone number.

14. HOW DO WE DEAL WITH YOUR REQUESTS?

To protect our customers' data from unauthorized disclosure, we will need to verify your identity upon receipt of your request to exercise your right(s). To confirm a person's identity, we primarily use the methods specified in Section 13 of the Privacy Policy. After receiving your request to exercise your right(s) and when the identity mentioned above verification procedure was successful, we undertake to provide you with information about the actions we took/or did not take in response to your request as soon as possible, but in any case no later than within 1 (one) month from the date of receipt of your request

Remember that your rights are not absolute, and we have the right to refuse to fulfill your request with a reasoned written answer under the conditions and grounds provided by legal acts. Taking into account the complexity and number of requests, we have the right to extend the period of 1 (one) month by another 2 (two) months, informing you about this before the end of the first month and indicating the reasons for such an extension. If your request is submitted electronically, we will also provide you with an answer electronically, unless this is impossible (e.g., due to a substantial amount of information) or when you request to answer another way. We will provide the information to you free of charge, but if the requests are manifestly unreasonable or disproportionate, in particular, due to repetitive content, we may charge a reasonable fee to cover administrative costs or refuse to act on your request.

15. YOU CAN CONTACT US:
